

East Chicago and the Harbor

Bandits Identified

Three colored men, positively identified as bandits who had held up and robbed the police, were taken into custody by Capt. Nick Mahan and Officer Paul Budich of the Buffalo Cement plant yesterday. Coats and other stolen property, some identified by parties as goods taken, were found in the possession of the three men when arrested. They gave their names as Sam Wilson, Willie Jackson and Alex Cheery.

From another colored workman at the Buffalo plant, who claimed he was held up last pay day by the same three men, the police here learn that these men have probably committed a series of holdups and robberies within the last month. These men are being held at the Harbor jail to be identified if possible by other citizens of the Twin City who have been held up and robbed recently.

Arrest Mexican.

After scouring "Little Mexico" all night, Harbor police early this morning apprehended and placed under arrest Arthur Martinez, a Mexican, living at 2512 Block avenue, who shot and wounded George Morrison at 3227 Block avenue last night. Two companions of Martinez are still at large.

According to the story of Mrs. Martinez, three men entered their place last night and started a quarrel. She ordered them out. They replied by firing a volley of bullets. The husband stepped from the rear of the building to be struck in the hand by two of the missiles.

Disorderly House.

Believing that the Christmas holidays is an immunity period for any desired past-time sports, Miguel Vasquez, 3406 Block avenue, established a temporary road-house, making it particularly attractive for the men folk.

Last night his place was raided by police from the Harbor station and Vasquez taken into custody on charges of operating a disorderly house. With him was arrested Anita Martinez on a charge of prostitution.

stitution and Ayo Badilla, as an associate.

Another part of the house the officers took charge of eight men who were found participating in a gambling game. All were booked at the Harbor station. Miguel Vasquez is held on two charges: one for keeping a disorderly house and the other for conducting a gambling game.

The arrests were made by police officers Kekich, Kirrin and Budich.

Nearly Buried Alive

Buried alive and resurrected in the shot space of an hour is an experience that Andrew Bugys of 1115 White Oak avenue, Whiting, can recall the rest of his born days with much excitement.

Bugys dug from what looked to his co-workers to be a coal pile buried, is alive and happy lying in the Gary hospital suffering from a few minor injuries.

It happened while in the performance of his duties of unloading coal cars at the Fruit Growers' Express Co. in East Chicago yesterday. Bugys slipped from a highline after releasing a hopper car, falling with the coal twenty feet below. For an hour he was submerged beneath the coal. After the unceasing digging of employees he was released. Police Officer Hathaway, who answered the call, took the man to Dr. Robinson's office from where he was removed to the Mercy hospital.

Workmen Escape

No one was injured at the Hyman-Michaels company scrap-yard in East Chicago yesterday when one of the company derricks completely collapsed while conveying a load of railroad castings from one part of the plant to another.

Several workmen, who were beneath the arm of the derrick when it became wobbly, gained a spot of safety when the machine came down in a heap with its heavy load. The derrick is considered a total wreck.

False Alarm.

For turning in a false fire alarm, Henry Jensen, of 2892 Euclid avenue, was fined $1 and cost when arraigned before Acting Judge Hyman M. Cohen in the East Chicago city court yesterday.

In addition to his fine Jensen was warned that he would face a jail sentence should he commit the second offense.

Fire At Bakery.

Fire early this morning in the bakery of Stanley Kwiatkowski at 4521 Northcote avenue, caused damages estimated at $250.

Engineers from the East Chicago fire station arrived in time to save the building. The fire is believed to have started by the lighting of hot grease in a doughnut container.

Elk's Big Party

Scions of the East Chicago Elk club prepared to celebrate their biggest New Year's Eve.

The passing of 1922 will and nearly two hundred revelers gathered at the East Chicago Elk club rooms to witness the coming of the New Year.

No effort has been spent to make this the largest and most elaborate function ever attempted by the local club. A special committee, in charge of arrangements, have transformed the dance hall and banquet rooms into a veritable palace of ornate designs that is fitting for the entertaining of royalty.

Prior to this eventful eve, Jay O'Connell, high mogul of the amusement committee, announces the engaging of Edwin's entertainers, a galaxy of high-class performers, whose acts will be augmented by an able orchestra from Lake county. For the preparation of a real and tasty banquet de Luxe, the Leonard Producing Co. has been secured. Whether wet, moist, dry or otherwise, the significance of this party will be to watch for the coming of 1923.

At The Hartley Theatre.

Else Ferguson, beautiful Paramount star, will be seen at the Hartley theater tonight in her latest starring vehicle, "Outcast." This is a delightful picture in which Miss Ferguson is seen as a woman of the streets who redeems the man she loves. There is a thrilling climax in which the star is rescued at sea by seaplane. David Powell plays opposite the star.
